

The Vine

“O God of Hosts, look down from Heaven, and visit this vine which, we trust, Thy right hand hath planted. Watch over, protect, and defend it. Nourish it with the dews of divine grace, and cause it to grow and spread and flourish...”
Also, refer to John 15:5 — “I am the vine, ye are the

Dear Saints of First Presbyterian Church:

Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?" Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away." – John 20:15
"Whom are you looking for?"

Mary never actually answers the question. On Easter Sunday for whom are we looking? We'll talk about it as we celebrate the Risen Christ on Sunday. Especially this Holy Week, know that you are loved.

Dr. Mike

Notes from Dr. Ken

Thank you, Chancel Choir, Paul Peart String Quartet, Harriette Brewington, Jean Cann. The music you provided for our worship on Palm Sunday was truly inspirational and beautiful.

We celebrate Easter and the Resurrection of our Lord this Sunday. Come to joyfully participate in our Resurrection Celebration! We will sing Easter celebration hymns and the Chancel Choir will lead as they sing “Jesus Christ is Risen Today” and “The Day of Resurrection.”

Will's Notes

THANK YOU to everyone who helped make this year's Easter Egg Hunt a success! We had fun, met some new friends, and – most importantly – heard about what happens when Jesus comes into our lives. We got some rock star people in our church!

No Youth Group this Sunday night! Enjoy Spring Break!
